Numb. 54.

South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From Saturday, January 20, to Saturday, January 27, 1732.

SIR,

BE pleaſed to inſert the following in your Gazette.

Conſidering our Trade with the Indians as managed at preſent, is attended with many Inconveniences to the Hazard of the publick Welfare; a Remedy therefore is wanting.

His Excellency has been pleaſed, from a paternal Love and Care for us, to move the ſame.

Wherefore, I beg Leave to embrace this Opportunity, not out of any ambitious Deſire of intruding into publick Council, but purely upon the Account of common Intereſt, to offer in an humble Manner my Thoughts thereupon.

Our Traders are diſperſed all over the Indian Nations with their reſpective Goods, and they generally lead diſſolute Lives. The Indians are poor Heathens, ignorant of Arts & Sciences, poſſeſſing no Principles of Honour, nor Honeſty, having no worthy Faith, or ſcarce any at all of a ſupreme Being, & for the ſame Reaſon, no Conſcience to check them for their evil Actions. We have two powerful Neighbours, who often in Time of Peace, ſolicited theſe our Allie Indians, by Promiſes, and Bribes, to break off our Friendſhip. The ſettling of Georgia will probably commence ſoon.

From theſe it appears, how much the Lives of the Traders, the Property of the Trading Goods, and the quiet of the Province, are daily expoſed to the precarious Humour of the fickle Indians, (ſometimes, alſo provoked, no doubt, to juſt Offence, by the profligate Lives, and bad Examples of the Traders) whom our Neighbours, if we may be allowed to judge by their paſt Conduct, will probably excite, eſpecially at this Juncture, to Enmity with us.

What I ſubmiſſively tender as an Expedient, to prevent the incumbent Danger, is, to have one or more Trading-Houſes, as ſhall be moſt convenient, for one Nation, and that in or nigh to the ſame Nation. That the Trading-Houſes be Fortifications, Our Traders be obliged, but no Indians allowed, to lodge in the Fortifications. The Gates be open to the Indians at Sun-riſing, and ſhut at Setting. That ſix Months Proviſions, at leaſt, be always in each Fortification. The Traders raiſe their own Proviſions near, and round the Fortification. They be encouraged to take Chriſtian Wives with them. And ſevere Laws be made, and ſtrictly put in Execution, againſt immoral Lives.

That this may be any Way conducive to the better regulating our Indian Trade, is the hearty deſire of Your humble Servant,

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

PARIS, Octob. 6. N. S.

THE Theatrical War is now over; and we hope the publick will be contented till the next Campaigne, with what they had for their Money. The King's Regiment broke up the 30*th*, after having entertain'd his Majeſty with a ſmart Engagement on the 28*th*, the four Batalions firing one againſt the other by different Plattoons, till each Soldier had made 18 Diſcharges. The King was very well pleaſed with their Valour, and having been royally entertained at Supper by the Colonel ſome Days before, he has been pleaſed to give the Regiment diſtinguiſhing Marks of his Favour; the Soldiers had 4000 Livers diſtributed among them; the Lieutenant Colonel is made a Brigadier, & a Penſion is given him of 2000 Livres a Year. Six Croſſes of the Order of St. Lewis were preſented to the elder Captains. The King has beſtowed Penſions on ſome others, and to all the reſt of the Officers his Majeſty was pleaſed to drink their Healths, and gave them Leave to drink his; an Honour rarely to be allowed to a Subject of France. But unfortunately on the 26*th* paſt the Soldiers of this Regiment had Leave to go to Fontainbleau; and as there was anciently an Animoſity, or a pique d'honneur, between them & the French Guards, they made a real War againſt each other; ſo that 20 of a ſide drew out and fought. Some were kill'd & many wounded of both Parties, before the Officers could come and ſeparate them. [Craftſm.

Some Letters from thence ſay, That an Attorney in the Street of St. Martin, having gotten a handſome Fortune by the Law, loſt it by his Wit; for thinking to have an advantagious Settlement for his Daughter, made a Contract of Marriage between her and a Foreigner, who appeared to be very rich, by his Manner of living. In ſhort, all Things being agreed on, the Attorney paid down to his pretended Son-in-Law, or he that was to be ſo, Miſs's Portion, which was 45,000 Livres.

The next Day, at Church, when the Marriage was about to be celebrated, he feigned to have forgot ſome Papers which he ſaid he wanted, and thereupon went out of the Church to look for them. They ſtaid a long while to look for the Bridegroom, but in vain. The Man made himſelf happy another Way, having ordered Poſt-Horſes to be ready to carry him off.

At the cloſe of laſt Week a Cabinet-Courier arrived Expreſs to the Chevalier d' Oſſorio, his Sardinian Majeſty's Envoy at this Court, with Diſpatches of great Moment. He came from Turin to Calais in five Days, and ſlept but three Hours by the Way.

LONDON, Octob. 7.

Yeſterday Morning ſeveral Spaniſh Merchants of this City waited on his Excellency the Count de Montejo, to compliment him on his Arrival in England.

'Tis diſcourſed, there will ſpeedily be a Reduction of 4000 Men in the Army; and that the Land Tax will be intirely taken off.

There are ſome Advices from the Weſt-Indies, which tell us, that the Spaniards now and then take an Engliſh Veſſel, becauſe they would not be idle. And it is alſo reported, that ſome of our Men of War have attack'd ſome of their Privateers, or Guarda Coſta's, by which the latter were damaged, but they don't tell us they were taken; however, if it were ſo, the Spaniards will not be ſuch bad Chriſtians as to ſeek Revenge, in an Age ſo famous for bearing of Injuries. [Fog.

By the Holland Mail juſt arrived we have the following Advices, That the Corſicans have actually declared, that in Caſe their 4 Chiefs confined at Genoa were not ſpeedily releaſed, they would ſeek for ſuch Aſſiſtance as might procure their Liberty, and, that they would hazard their Lives and Fortunes for maintaining their Privileges; That the Elector of Palatine had rejected the Emperor's Propoſals, for accommodating the Affair of the Dutchies of Juliers and Bergues; That the Dutchy of Deuxpointz continued ſtill in ſuſpence; That a Treaty of Alliance was negociating between the King of France and Sardinia; and that an Alliance between France and the Swiſs Cantons was much labour'd after; That the Dyet of Poland was in ſuch Confuſion, that no Succeſs would be expected from it.

Octob. 10. Laſt Night John Randolph, Eſq; arrived here from Virginia, being appointed by the Governor and Aſſembly of that Province, to negociate Affairs of great Importance to his Majeſty's Subjects of that Colony, which, as all thoſe of our Sugar Colonies, laboured under a great Declenſion in their reſpective Staple of Commeree; however, tis not doubted but the moſt proper Methods requiſite for retrieving them will be conſulted the next Seſſion of Parliament; againſt which Time will be printed, in order to be laid before them, purſuant to the Tenor of the late Act, the ſeveral Liſts and Inventories delivered to Mr. Baron Thompſon of the Eſtates of Sir Robert Sutton, Sir Archibald Grant, Dennis Bond, Eſq; and others formerly belonging to the Charitable Corporation; and tis expected a a juſt Diſtribution thereof will be made by the Legiſlature towards relieving the poor unhappy Sufferers.

From Leghorn, that in Caſe the Genoeſe do not ſoon releaſe the four Chiefs of the Malecontents of Corſica, the Emperor had ordered 1000 Foot & 300 Horſe to March to that Republick and demand them.

From Warſaw, that the General Dyet was entirely broke up fruitleſsly; and from Dreſden that the Saxon Troops were to be augmented to 40,000 Men.

According to what is adviſed from Berlin by the laſt Mail, we may ſoon expect an Ambaſſador from the King of Pruſſia, for accommodating all Differences between him and his Britannick Majeſty.

On Saturday laſt the Right Hon. the Earl of Portmore was married to her Grace the Ducheſs of Leeds.

There are Accounts from Cronyhorn, near Shillelly, in the County of Wicklow in Ireland, of a moſt inhuman Act perpetrated by a Daughter of William Hodgkiſſon, on the Body of her Husband, a Servant of her Fathers, who ſhe privately married for Love about ſix Years ago; but was ſo irritated againſt him, in a Fit of Jealouſy, nothing but Revenge could ſatisfy her, and that of the moſt bloody Sort: Accordingly on the 4th Inſtant ſhe inticed him to Bed ſomewhat earlier than ordinary, and when aſleep, with a large ſharpened Knife, provided for that Purpoſe, ſhe cut off his Privy Members, & then left him in that miſerable Condition; but he immediately crying out, the Family aroſe, ſecured her, and ſent for a Surgeon who dreſſed him, & giving his Opinion the Wound was Mortal, the Wife in the Morning was committed to Goal. 'Tis reported that the Man is ſince dead, and the poor miſerable Wretch who committed the Fact is now in the utmoſt Deſpair.

Octob. 12. Yeſterday the Spaniſh Ambaſſador's Lady was at Court for the firſt Time, in a Spaniſh Dreſs, attended by an Interpreter, and ſome Ladies that came over with her: She was received by their Majeſties, and the reſt of the Royal Family, with great Marks of Eſteem.

Octob. 17. Yeſterday Morning the Right Hon. the Earl of Harborough departed this Life, after a long Indiſpoſition, at his Houſe near Golden Square.

Boston, Decemb. 11. We are informed by Mr. Lydius, who is lately arrived here from Albany, that a little before he came from thence, he receiv'd a Letter from a Relation at Montreal in Canada, which gave an Account, that on the 5th of Sept. last, about Noon, they had an amazing Shock of an Earthquake, (the same Day and Hour it was last perceived here) which was so violent, that about 165 Houses suffered more or less Damage thereby, and the Walls encompassing the Town in part thrown down. Three Persons were kill'd, and Six wounded; and the Shock was repeated nine or ten Nights following, during which Time the People were afraid to lodge in their Houses. He also informs, that the Small-Pox is at Canada, and the Necessaries of Life very scarce.

CHARLESTOWN, Jan. 27.

On Saturday last, a Negro Fellow belonging to Mr. Isaac Mazyck, Ien. pull'd a young Lad off his Horse, on the Broad Path, and rode away with the Horse, and Bags thereon, in which were Cloaths of Value: He was taken on Sunday, on Monday brought to Town, tried, and condemned; and the next Day, about Noon, he was hanged
